

What to do if you are being released from Prison or a Youth Detention Centre

St Albans City and District Council

Housing Options Team

Self Referral: <https://www.stalbanshomechoice.co.uk>

Homelessness.Triage@stalbans.gov.uk

01727 819355

Review Date: June 2022

If you are facing homelessness upon being released from prison or a Youth Detention Centre, there are a number of options available to you.

Local Services

Local probation offices offer housing and rehabilitation advice for prisoners serving their sentence in London or Hertfordshire. They may also be able to provide temporary accommodation.

The Cornergate Foundation

www.cornergate.org 07947 272870

Herts Association for the Care and Resettlement of Offenders offer support and housing advice ex-prisoners moving back to Hertfordshire and for prisoners being released from HMP The Mount (Bovingdon).

hacro.office@zen.co.uk 01727 854727

Probation work with ex-offenders who have just been released to complete their sentence plan. They offer a range of interventions to help with this, including accommodation advice

0345 601 4390

National Services

NACRO is committed to working with ex-offenders to find them stable housing solutions, as well as providing a wide range of other support services.

helpline@nacro.org.uk 0300 123 1889

The St Giles Trust is a charitable organisation that assists ex-offenders in finding suitable housing and employment.

info@stgilestrust.org.uk 0207 708 8000

Impact Pathways acts as a gateway to accessing a number of organisations providing housing assistance to ex-offenders across the country. For more details visit their website:

www.impactpathways.org.uk/Accommodation/

Recoop assist with the re-settlement and care of elderly prisoners and ex-offenders.

info@recoop.org.uk 0300 123 1992