

Privacy Notice – Council Tax Enquiry Form

This privacy notice explains how St Albans City & District Council (the Data Controller) will use any personal information we collect.

What personal information do we collect?

The information that the Council will collect varies depending on how you use the Council's Services. We are using the information provided in this case because we have a legal obligation (Art. 6(1)(c) of UK General Data Protection Regulation ("UK GDPR")). This means we collect the personal information from you so that we can carry out a function we are required by law to carry out. In this case we are collecting the personal information for the purposes of Council Tax.

If you are providing us with special category personal information (such as details about your health) we will be processing this under Art. 9(2) UK GDPR. If you are providing us with criminal conviction personal information we will be processing this under Art.10 UK GDPR. We share your data with the ONS under public interest (Art.6(1)(e) of the UK GDPR) because it is necessary for the collection of statistical purposes.

How will we use the information?

We use the information to process Council Tax. We will only share the information to enable us to deal with this matter.

If you provide us with details such as your e-mail address or your telephone number, we may contact you via these methods for the purposes of the collection of Council Tax.

We may share the information with other council departments, enforcement agents, landlords and agents.

We may be required to share your personal information with the Police, Internal Audit or similar agency, or another Council for the purposes of preventing and detecting fraud.

We will share the data you provide with the Office of National Statistics (ONS) for their statistical purposes. They will use the data in a non-anonymised format for various statistical purposes, including, but not limited to, verification of the Census. The ONS will not share non-anonymised data externally. Any data published will be anonymised.

We may share the personal information you provide with CIFAS for the purpose of fraud prevention. They may share this with other organisations, including fraud agencies and local authorities which are specified on their website.

If any of the information you provide is inaccurate or if fraud is detected, this may affect your ability to access certain services from us. Anyone knowingly making a false statement may be liable for prosecution. We will also share your personal data with CIFAS. CIFAS may share it with other organisations and they could refuse certain services, finance or employment as a consequence.

Further details of how your information will be used by CIFAS and their members, and your data protection rights, can be found here <https://www.cifas.org.uk/fpn>.

We will ensure that all personal information is kept securely.

How long will we keep this information?

We will destroy this personal information in accordance with our Disposal Schedules. To determine how long we should keep information, we consider what the legislation states and what is good practice. This means we will securely destroy the information once we no longer need it. If you would like to know the specific period of time that relates to your personal information please contact GDPR@stalbans.gov.uk

The ONS will retain the data as long as they consider it necessary for statistical purposes. This means they may retain it for a significant period of time.

CIFAS and other fraud agencies will retain your personal information in accordance with their disposal schedules, this can be up to a period of six years. Fraud prevention agencies such as CIFAS may transfer your data outside of the European Economic Area (EEA), however they will impose contractual obligations to protect your personal data if they do this.

Individuals' Rights

Data subjects have a right to request a copy of the personal information that we hold about them. If you or the data subject would like a copy of some or all of the personal data held by the Council, please contact foi@stalbans.gov.uk and ask for a subject access request.

If you consider we hold inaccurate personal information about you, you can contact us to ask for this information to be corrected. We will consider your request and respond within one month. Please contact GDPR@stalbans.gov.uk.
