

Image EDP 4: View of Sandridgebury house from the north, looking south. This also shows the well enclosed nature of its surroundings.

Image EDP 5: Longer view towards Sandridgebury from the east. None of the listed buildings can be seen, demonstrating its well-enclosed nature.

Image EDP 6: View of the Grade II* listed church of St Leonard, from its churchyard, looking north-west.

Image EDP 7: View of the relationship of the church to the 'historic core' of the village, looking south-west towards the site, which cannot readily be made out.

Image EDP 8: View towards the church across the northern part of the site from Sandridgebury Lane, looking east at a focal length of 50mm.

Image EDP 9: View towards the church across the northern part of the site from Sandridgebury Lane, looking north-east.

Image EDP 10: The Beeches Bottom Dyke scheduled monument lies in this area of woodland to the south of site, although this is not readily discernible, looking south-east.

Image EDP 11: View of Beeches Bottom Dyke from within the site, looking south. To the left is a level landscaped area to the back of 138 St Albans road where the dyke was identified through trenching. The now infilled stretch extends into the woodland. the site is level ground and does not form part of the scheduling but lies in an area of potential archaeology identified in the HER. No earthworks were noted in this area.

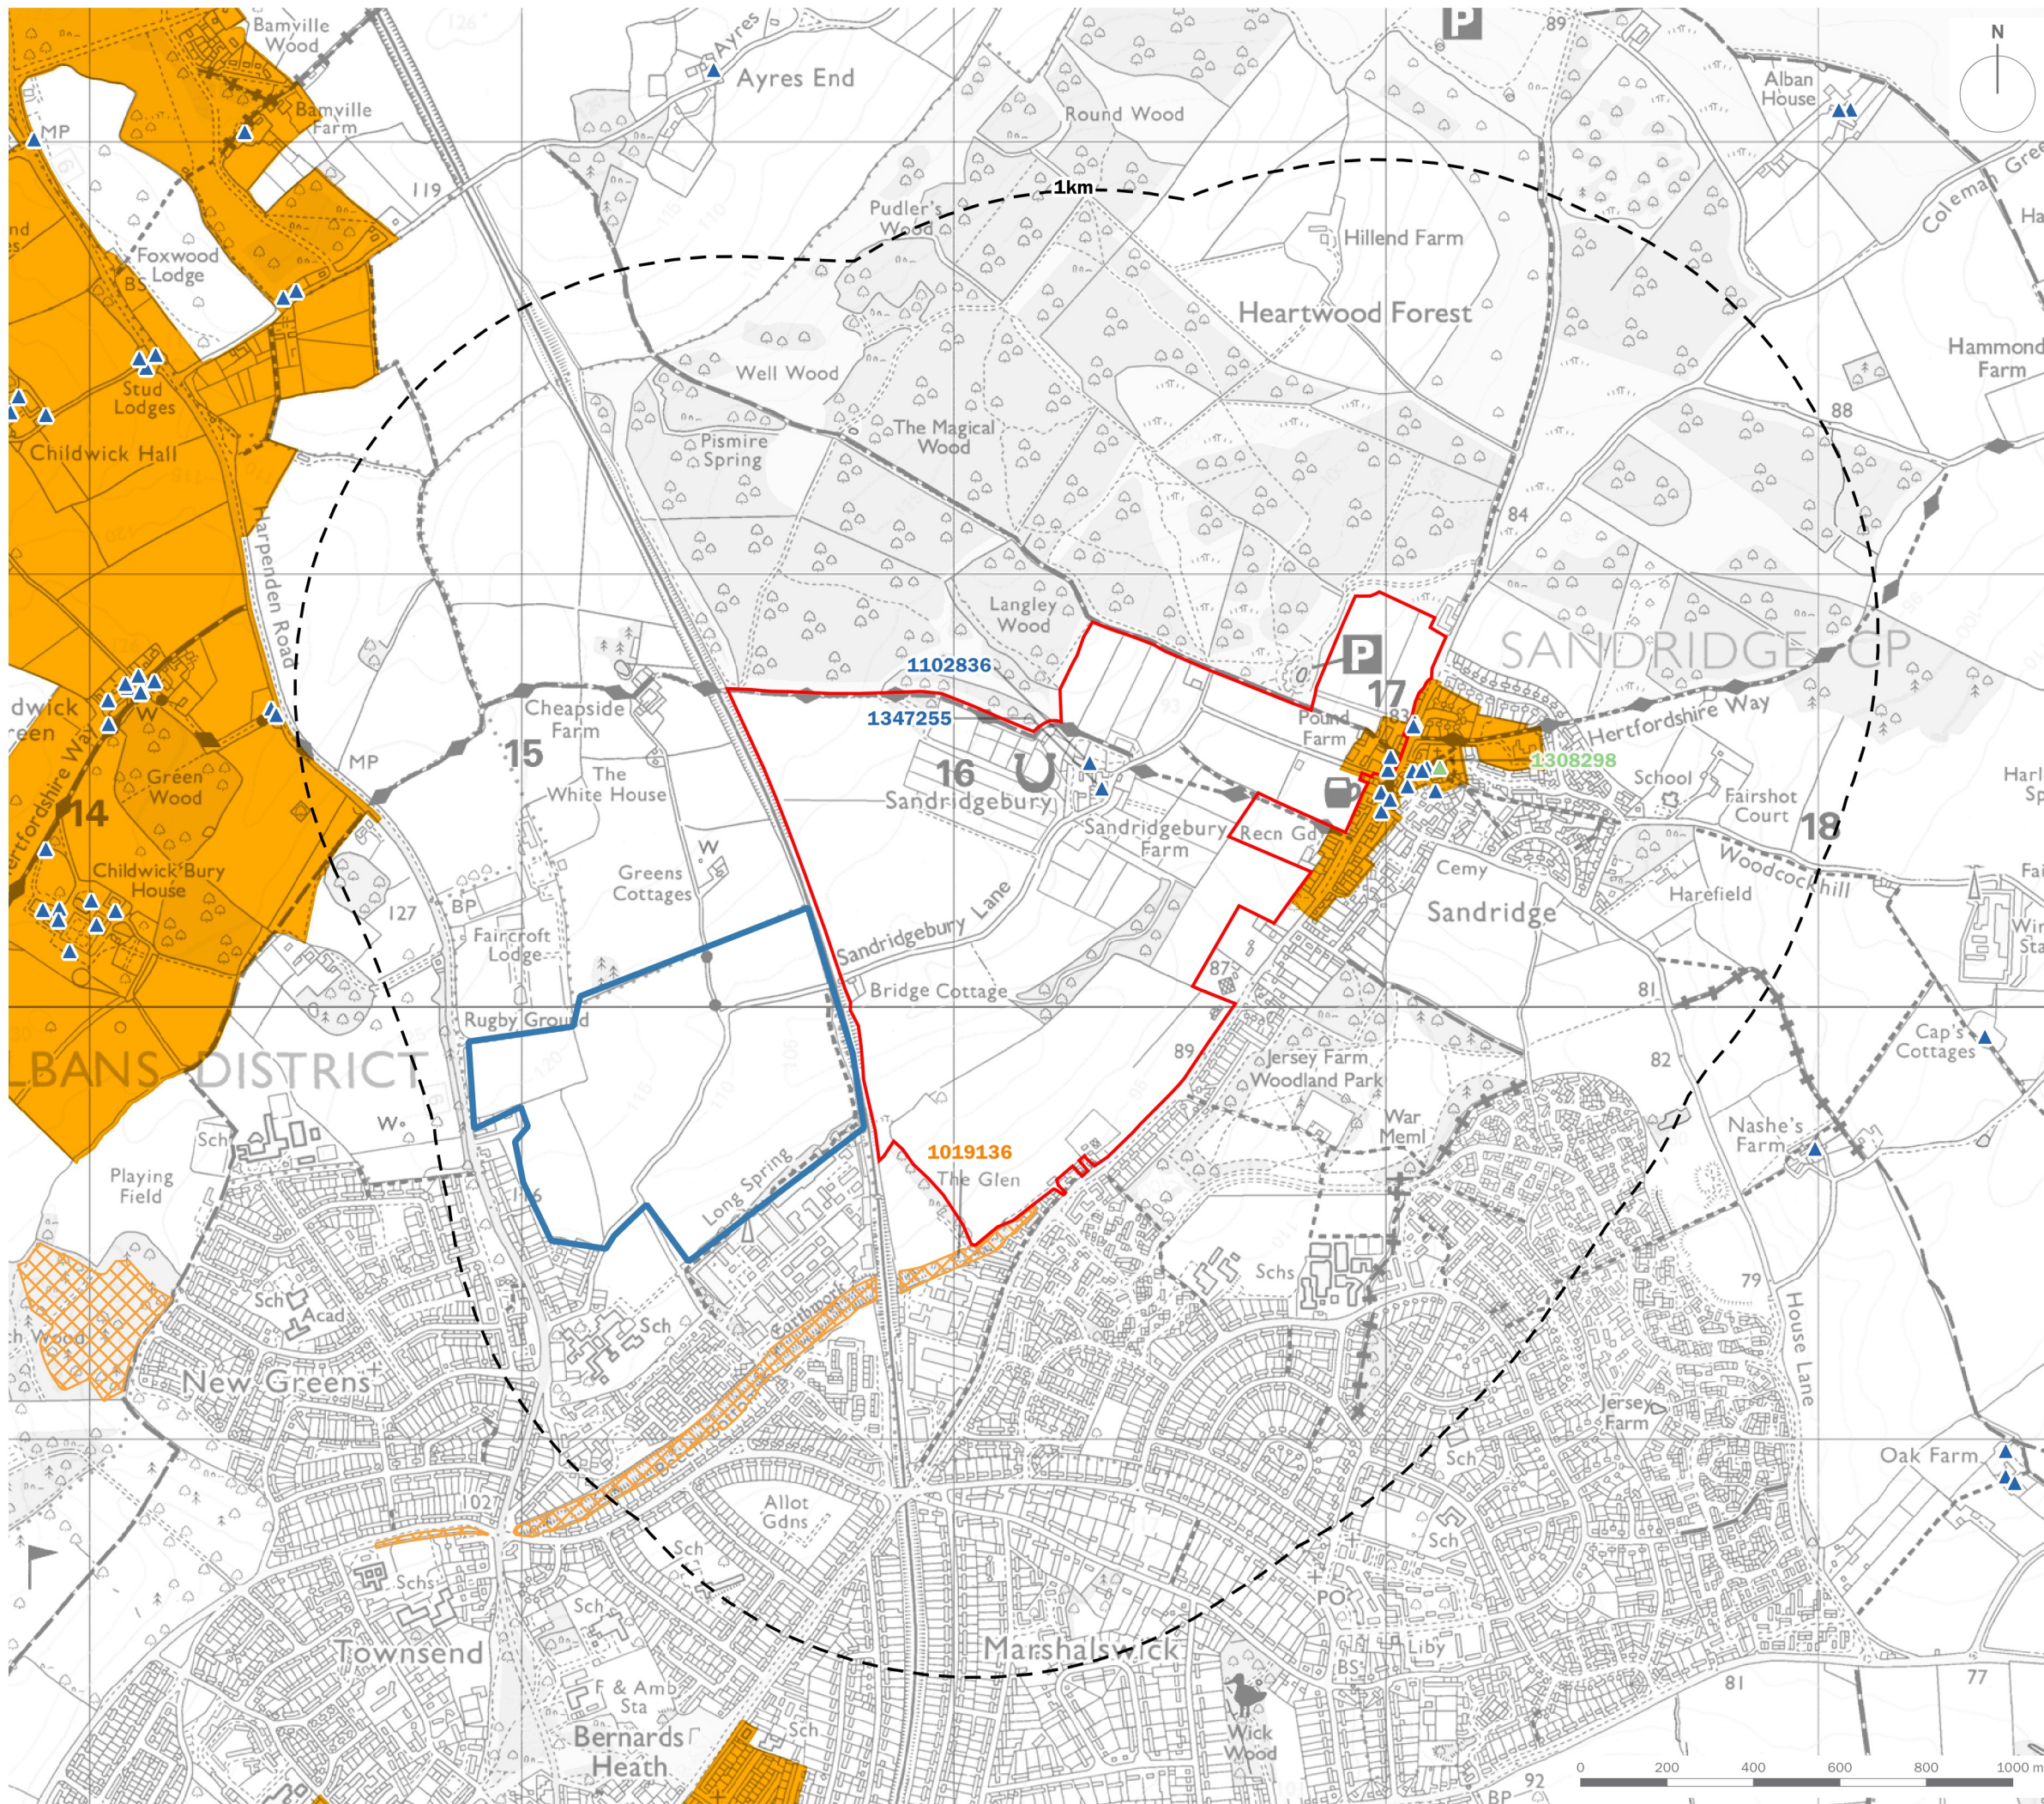

Image EDP 12: Broader view towards Beeches Bottom Dyke looking south. Showing the field within the site, and the rear of properties forming its setting along St Albans Road.
